

CIRCUS IMAGINATION

Interactive circus where the kids are the stars

Circus Imagination is a second generation family owned business, creating an unforgettable experience for children in the Fairs & Festivals for over 30 years. Ringmaster Caton Raintree-Hegwer together with wife, costumier Carolina, make the impromptu theater of Circus Imagination.

The show starts under the blue and yellow "Big Top" with children ages 4 and up getting selected from the audience, they dress up in custom-made costumes and are instantly transformed into circus performers. The circus can take up to 40 volunteers and it's free to join!

Kids can become Tight Rope Walkers, Lions, Tigers, Bears, Clowns, Butterfly Ballerinas, Champagne Sisters, Cowboys, Cowgirls, Strongman and even get shot out of the "Kid Blaster" as a Human Cannon Ball.

Using interactive theater to bring Imagination back encouraging kids to be active and play outside.

"Aiming to maximize their full creative potential by strengthening their confidences, the major triumph of Circus Imagination is still the fact that it does not end when the show is over," - quote from Holtville Tribune, CA.

Circus Links:
Website: http://www.circusimagination.com/
Youtube Videos: http://www.youtube.com/CircusImagination
Blog: http://circusimagination.wordpress.com
Facebook: http://www.facebook.com/CircusImagination
Instagram Pictures: http://www.instagram.com/CircusImagination